A TURPENTINE GUITER.-The common me thod of obtaining crude turpentine by boxing the pines is fatal to the trees, and extensive forests are destroyed in a few years by this process. Mr. A. Pudigon, of this city, has invented a gutter which, avoiding the necessity of boxing, preserved the trees and keep the turp-ntine clean and white. This gutter concests of two pieces of tip, about eight inches long and an inch and a balf wide, which are inserted into the tree edge cays in such a manner tha they form the figure V. Under the point of the gutter is placed on cartherware cup, into which the crude turpentine drips. This invention is fast coming into general use, one bouse alone in this city having received orders or 25, 000

ANOTHER OLD MERCHANT GOVE. -The obse quies of Mr. Frederick Famoing took place yesterday atternoon at the Globe-street Prosbyterian Church. The performance of all whe took part in the programme was so excellent that it is almost impossible to particulariza, but it can be said with candor that the inflammatus the casatine and the duo were rendered with a grace that made them peculiarly striking. Mrs. Barbot is entitled to no little praise for her great success last evening, and those who enjoyed the musical feast appreciated her efforts.

In rarity of cestume, magnificence of scenery and gorzeousness of decoration, the White Fawn far surpas-es any theatrical exhibition ever before witnessed in Charleston. It is performed by the original company with all the original scenery brought here and put up at an immense expense, and the splendid and successful result reflects the greatest credit on the enterprise of Manager Templeton. Notwithstanding the other attractions in the city last night the theates was orowded to overflowing, every soat being taken, and the assier jammed with people standing up.

AFFAIRS IN ORANGEBURG .- Our correspondent "One one tois" writes us from Orangeburg under date of the 18th instint: "The ladies of our town are indefatigable in lending their aid to every good work. Last night they opened a supper room, where every dainty and substantial was spreed to provoke the most sluggish appetite; and, despite the blustering night, a goodly attendance was present. Had the weather been more fivorable, the spacious room would have been throught. The object of the supper was to raise funds to as ast the Methodist Church, which denomination is now under the charge of the Rev. Mr. crisp, a stranger, but one whose zeal and plety must advance the great work entiusted to his circ. Since the resignation of A. F. Dickson from the Presbyterian Church to take the charge of a church in New Orleans, there has been no regular service in that charch; but it is hoped that the venerable and beloved Rev. E. Palmer will accept the call which has been extended to him and com: among us. His acceptance will be hailed with gratitude, and his ministrations regarded a peculiar privilege "

Presidence - Thursday, February 18, 1869.-The ourt resumed the hearing of the case of the State vs. Solomon Happy. This was an indictment for Esq , for the defence, contended that the pipe, being part and pare l of the real estate, could not be the subject of largeny, unless the severance from the realty be proved by the State, and after the arguwas entered by Attorney-General Chamberlain, and the prisoner was remanded to answer further in lict-

Dave Johnson, Peter Johnson, Jim Callo-ay and

Peter Stuler, next came up for trial. A. T. Smythe and R. G. Chisolm, Esqs., appeared for the defence.

The circumstances connected with this case are briefly these: On the 13th of October last, the night express train, on its way to the city, was stopped by a quantity of greave which had been applied to the track, and while so delayed several of the cars were robbed of their contents. After an investigation the suspicion pointed to the detendants above nam-d, who were accordingly indicted for the triple offenc of malicious trespass, iarceny and obstructing a railway train. The court was engaged during the cutire session in hearing the testimony and argument in
